"Importance of Arabic Language in Modern Era"

The Department of Islamic Studies in collaboration with Library organized Lecture and Book Exhibition on Monday, 18th December 2023, at 10:30 a.m. in the Library to celebrate World Arabic Language Day.

The event aimed to highlight the significance of the Arabic language in the modern era and to promote awareness about its importance among students and faculty members. It was organized in collaboration with both departments to ensure a comprehensive understanding of the subject matter.

The lecture, titled "Importance of Arabic Language in Modern Era" was the focal point of the event. It was delivered by Dr. Nilofar Nadiyah, Department of Arabic, University of Mumbai, who provided valuable insights into the historical, cultural, and contemporary relevance of the Arabic language. The lecture covered various aspects, including the role of Arabic in Islamic literature, its contribution to global communication, and its significance in academic and professional spheres. Attendees had the opportunity to engage in a fruitful discussion with the speaker, gaining further clarity on the topic.

Simultaneously, Book Exhibition was arranged to complement the lecture. A wide array of books related to Arabic language, literature, history, and culture were displayed by the Library staff. This exhibition served as a valuable resource for attendees to explore further and deepen their understanding of the Arabic language and its rich heritage.

The turnout for the event was encouraging, with 96 student beneficiaries and 15 faculty members.
